The History Teachers' Association of Victoria is committed to fostering an outstanding professional community which meets the challenges of the teaching and learning of history in a dynamic environment.

With history high on the political agenda and with the Australian History Curriculum (P-10) to be implemented in 2013, there has never been a better time to join the HTAV. Nor have there ever been so many benefits. As a professional teaching association, the HTAV can represent your interests and keep you informed of developments as they happen.

The HTAV can also provide the assistance you need – no matter what your level of experience or the perspective of history you are looking for. Here are some of the ways we can help you do your job more effectively:

- providing curriculum development and resource advice
- supporting networks of teachers experienced in all areas of history
- a professional development program
- a lecture series for VCE and IB students
- relevant and affordable teaching and learning resources
- support of history competitions such as the National History Challenge, Simpson Prize and Australian History Competition.

With your HTAV membership, member and updates are delivered directly to your email inbox! That's four copies of the HTAV journal Agora and eight copies of the Bulletin per year. No more lost copies or having to share them with other staff – you can access them electronically at your leisure. However, if you prefer to continue reading Agora in the traditional way, you can elect to have a hard copy posted to you for a nominal fee.
