Privacy Notice: The History Teachers' Association of Australia (HTAA) is required to comply with the Privacy Act 1988. In accordance with the Privacy Act, the HTAA may collect certain personal information about the entrant, including the entrant's name, address and photograph for the purpose of conducting the 2012 Simpson Prize and may use and/or disclose such information in any of its publications (including written and multimedia reports, guides and brochures) for distribution and on the HTAA web site, for educational, promotional or reporting purposes. When giving your permission you should be aware that any information published on the internet is accessible to millions of users from all over the world, that it will be indexed by search engines and that it may be copied and used by any web user. This means that once the student entry and/or photograph is published on the internet we will have no control over its subsequent use and disclosure. The HTAA may disclose that personal information to the Australian Government Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations and the Departments of Education in separate states or territories of Australia, as well as to the Ministers responsible for those Departments for general promotional purposes. These Departments, their contractors and agents, and Ministers may use and/or disclose the personal information in any of their publications (including written and multimedia reports, guides and brochures) for distribution and on the Departments' and Ministers' web sites for educational, promotional or reporting purposes. In other instances, information on this form may be disclosed without your consent where authorised or required by law.

1. I/we declare that I am/we are the guardians/parents of _____ creator of the entry (and for winners their subsequent journals) (from now on referred to as 'the entrant'), and shall ensure that the entrant, so far as possible, understands the statements and obligations in the following declaration. I/we make the following declaration on behalf of the entrant in relation to his/her entry (and for winners their subsequent journals).
2. I/we accept that entry into the competition is subject to the terms of this declaration and is submitted according to the rules of the Simpson Prize. I/we accept that the judges' decision is final and that no correspondence or reconsideration will be entered into. I/we understand that acceptance of any prize is conditional on full participation in any program or presentation organized for prize winners.
3. I/we accept that the entry and photo or image of the entrant may be published. I/we accept that the entry (and for winners the subsequent journal) remains the property of the History Teachers' Association of Australia (referred to as the 'HTAA') and assign all intellectual property rights in the entry to the HTAA from the date of submission of the entry.
4. I/we give consent to the HTAA (and other assignees of the intellectual property in the entry) to any act, omission or thing by use the entry (and any information provided in the entry, and for winners the subsequent journal) for the purposes of promoting, publicising or reporting the Simpson Prize and for use in conjunction with similar activities conducted by the HTAA and the Australian Government (i.e. for internal reporting purposes within the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations) the HTAA in relation to the entry (and for winners the subsequent journal) that would constitute an infringement of the moral rights of the entrant of attribution and integrity of authorship. This consent extends to any adaptation, reproduction, communication or other similar use of the entry (and any information provided in the entry, and for winners the subsequent journal) by the HTAA and other assignees of the intellectual property.
5. I/we accept that the entry (and for winners the subsequent journal) remains the property of the History Teachers' Association of Australia (referred to as the 'HTAA') and assign all intellectual property rights in the entry (and for winners the subsequent journal) to the HTAA from the date of submission of the entry (and for winners the subsequent journal).
6. I have read the Privacy Notice set out in this Declaration and consent to the entrant's personal information being used and disclosed by HTAA, the Commonwealth Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations, State and Territory Departments of Education, State and Territory authorities responsible to those State and Commonwealth Departments, their contractors and agents and the Ministers responsible for those Departments in accordance with the provisions contained in the Privacy Notice.
7. I understand that HTAA, the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations, their contractors and agents and the responsible Ministers will not otherwise disclose my personal information unless required or authorised by law.
8. On my/our own behalf, I/we understand and agree that should _____ be successful as a State or Territory winner of the competition, he/she will travel to Canberra for a two-day briefing in March 2012 and to Turkey or the Western Front in April 2012 to participate in the dawn service and other ceremonies. If chosen as runner-up, he/she will participate in the two-day March 2012 briefing in Canberra. I/we consent to this travel by the entrant.
