HISTORY TEACHERS' REGIONAL SUMMIT

Friday 29 March 2019

Professional Learning

Sovereign Hill, Golden Point VIC

Saturday 30 March 2019

Historical and Cultural Experiences

Free tours at four different venue options

We know it isn't always easy for regional teachers to attend professional learning events. That's why HTAV is delighted to partner with Sovereign Hill to offer the 2019 Regional Summit in Ballarat!

This is a full-day program of conference workshops that were rated highly by Victorian history teachers. Sessions will cover Levels 7–10 and VCE History including literacy, rubrics, assessment and gamification.

Included in the cost of registration is:

- Eighteen of the most popular professional learning workshops from recent HTAV conferences to choose from
- An opportunity to have your questions answered by the VCAA's Curriculum Manager for History and Civics
- Morning tea, lunch AND the Summit dinner
- Entry for delegates and their families to Sovereign Hill's new multi-sensory evening show, AURA (usual price $64)
- A choice of free tours/cultural experiences for delegates and their families at Sovereign Hill, Kryal Castle, the Art Gallery of Ballarat, Eureka Centre and the Ballarat Observatory on Saturday, followed by free entry into all venues for the rest of the day.
